Sec. 44A-2. License required.

A person must not conduct the business of a dealer unless the person possesses a dealer's license issued by the Office of Consumer Protection, which must be displayed to the public wherever the person conducts the business of a dealer. An individual must not act as officer, employee or agent, and in that capacity engage in transactions involving secondhand personal property, for a person required to be licensed by this Chapter unless the person possesses a valid and current dealer's license. (1981 L.M.C., ch. 27, § 1; 1983 L.M.C., ch. 28, § 1; 1996 L.M.C., ch. 13, § 1; 2005 L.M.C., ch. 26, § 1.)

Sec. 44A-3. Required books and records; reporting requirements.

(a) A dealer must keep all records and receipts required by this section at the business location for a minimum of 1 year from the date of the latest recorded transaction.

(b) A dealer must keep an electronic record, in English, of each purchase or receipt by or on behalf of the dealer at the time of the transaction. Each transaction must be recorded in an electronic format specified by regulation under method (3), which contains the following information:

(d) The requirements of subsections (a), (b), and (c) do not apply to secondhand personal property which has been inspected and cleared for earlier disposition by the Police under regulations adopted under method (3).
